

Let's learn to ballroom dance

with Seiseki Young Dance Circle

Learn a new skill

Learning ballroom dance is learning a new language with your body. With good communication, you and your dance partner can make beautiful figures on the dance floor.

To help us learn this international language, we have lessons every week from professional dance teachers Himiko and Mamoru Igarashi.

Dance at parties

Join us on the dance floor! In just three months, you can practice your new communication skills and meet new people.

Each year SYDC holds parties in July and December, so you can have fun and see just how much you have improved!

Practice English

Meet our regular members, American girl Suzie and English gentleman Julian!

Feel free to chat with them in English while you are dancing.

Many of our other members can also speak English!

Make new friends

We have such a diverse membership – from college students to nurses to computer technicians – conversations are always so interesting. Currently we have about 20 members mainly in their 20s and 30s. Whether you're an advanced dancer or completely new, everyone is welcome!

Practices are Wednesdays 19:30~22:30 @MyDance School, S.I. Bldg. 7th F
